JESUS THE LIGHT OF CHRISTENDOM

STRONG AND INTERESTING SER-MON BY REV. DENISON.

CHRISTIANITY EMBRACES

All That Is Fine in All of the Religions and the Best Thoughts of Men of All Times.

After the sermon at the Congregational church yesterday morning fourteen were welcomed into the church as new members. Those who united yesterday were: Mr. and Mrs. George P. Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Dallas, D. J. and Miss Jean Jeffris, Mr. and Mrs. AL G. Jeffris, Mr. and Mrs. A.
P. Noreen, A. E. Bingham, F. A.
Taylor, J. W. Sule, and H. L. Mc-Namara.

"Jesus" truth centralizes all that is fine in the thoughts of the human race. Above all the inadequacies of thought is "Jesus" thought. These were the words of Rev. R. C. Denison in his sermon yesterday morning at the Congregational church on "The Light of the World."

The text of the sermon was taken from the eighth chapter of the Gospel of John, the twelfth verse, "Then spoke Jesus again unto them, saying, "I am the light of the world."

It is possible, said Rev. Denison, that these words may not have been spoken in just this form by Jesus, but they do represent his thought and the conception of the first century Christians concerning the Master.
They thought of him as the Light of the world and successive centuries have but confirmed that opinion.

We use a light sometimes for little things, but we also put it to great uses. Astronomers make use of light in their study of the stars and there are numerous other ways in which it is used for a great purpose. It is by light that we are able to see God's world; to look over the vast plains, to view the grand and distant mountains, to survey the beauties of the hills.

This which is true of light is also true of thought. We use thought in the selection of our clothes, our food and the minor things of life, but thought also has greater uses. It is the power by which man searches into the deep questions of life.

The commonest use which is made of thought is for the small things.
Jesus asks that you might think with him about the greater things.

We have all come to realize that we are coming into the knowledge of a larger universe and a larger world of thought. We know that there are millions and millions of other worlds besides ours. Life is multitudinous and towering.

"Take the wings of the morning and place the Bureau wilderness, Where rolls the Oregon, and hears no sound save its own dashings.
Yet the dead are there; and millions in those solitudes Since first the flight of years began, Have laid them down in their last sleep.
The dead reign there alone."

That which is true of the dead nation is also true of dead ideas and philosophies. Some say, "What a small world is this, but the world is full of life. Every man has his own thoughts and passions; every life has its own system and destiny and every day we are coming into some contemplation of the marvel of life."

What place does Christianity and Christ hold in this life? Is this not but one more of the passing systems?
What claim has Christ upon the world's thought and upon the vastness of life?

When we study the teachings of Jesus we are amazed to find the many things which he has taught which seem to have been taken almost word for word from the teachings of others.
From the philosophies of Confucius, and Buddha and other eastern religions. The thoughts and inspirations of the life of Jesus are the up-gatherings of all the hopes and thoughts of the human race. Jesus centralized all that was fine in the thinking of the human race. The thought of Jesus far surpasses and crowns them all. Above all the inadequacies is the thought of Jesus. There is no thought but is surpassed by the thought of Jesus.

Jesus Christ put his finger on the central truth when he said, "Man's heart must first be right. All movements of reform must make toward the creation of a new man."

The marvel about Jesus' thought is that he lived it. The greatest thing in the universe is the life of Jesus.
Jesus lived the truth and we realize that a man who lives the truth is greater than he who speaks it.

Jesus is the light of the world.

By what light will you look on light saw by the light of Jesus? By what light will you look on life, to make it your purpose to get all the good you can accumulate or to enjoy the joys which life alone can give you? With what light do you look on death, as the end of all things or by the light of Jesus thought that there is a life beyond and this is but the beginning of it?

There is a wonderful story of the Providence of God. Christianity was born in the Orient but spread westward. Why? Because in the purpose of God Christianity should spread and grow. Therefore, God gave it to the western world because they were strong races and would live it and carry it on and outward to the wide world.

Christ is the fulfillment of your nature and your life. You were made for that which is in Christ. The purpose of God is the uplifting of the plane of life higher and higher. Therefore when you try to lead a Christian life you are working with God.
To be a Christian is to labor with God in the uplifting of the ages.
There is no glory and no honor to be compared with this simple honor.

gress of the festivities. About thirty couples participated and the enterents of schools, to town, village, and school district officers, nor to judicial officers, excepting police justices and justices of the peace in cities, interest in the forthcoming preliminary spring election on March 23 will be confined to the larger centers of population.

State and county superintendents of Evelyn M. Case, one of Shoppers' most popular young ladies, were united bride's parents who are residents of Shoppers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. W. Ownby, pastor of the M. E. church, in the presence of about 65 guests. The bride was tastefully attired in a gown of white Swiss trimmed with valentines lace and insertion. The bridesmaid, Miss Hilda Luhren, sister of the groom, wore a gown of pale blue

H. A. GOWDY AT HIS OLD TRICKS AGAIN

Man and Woman Arrested and Brought to Trial in Beloit Worked Game in Elgin.

H. A. Gowdy, who with his wife, was arrested in Beloit and held in the county jail here some time ago, for obtaining money from Beloit merchants, pretending to represent the Annual Labor Review, has been caught at his old game again and has again escaped the penalties of the law. The places he was last heard from were Elgin, Illinois. In Elgin he secured $25 for advertising from three firms, one of them a banking institution.
The officers of the bank became suspicious and Gowdy and his wife were apprehended by the police but allowed to go as there was not enough grounds to base charges on. They were told to leave Elgin and went from there to Aurora, but did not return the money secured, to the Elgin firms.
The Elgin authorities wrote to the President of the Trades and Labor Council of Peru, which Gowdy claimed was endorsing his project, and learned from him that The American Federal Labor Press, which Gowdy was supposed to represent, has no corporate existence and no connection with organized labor. A newspaper employee, claimed to be secretary of Gowdy's concern, said, however, that he has contracts with Gowdy for special printing. Gowdy is loath to see the union officials.

REPENTANCE FOR SINS NECESSARY

LENTEN SERMON SHOWS PROPER USE OF HOLY SEASON.

DEAN E. E. REILLY SPEAKS

Sermon Shows Deformity of Sin and Gives Religious Duties of Catholics During Lent.

The deformity and repulsiveness of sin, the subject set before by the church as the text for Lent, served on the third Sunday in Lent, served as a text for an eloquent and stirring sermon by Dean E. E. Reilly at St.
Patrick's church yesterday. The pro-pious observance of Lent, a time of self-wakening and repentance, was also fully discussed.

In introducing his subject, Rev.
Reilly first explained that the church has not added certain subjects to be discussed at each Sunday service during Lent. The deformity of sin being the one for the third Sunday. These subjects are to be brought forward in order that the members of the church may be given a chance to reflect upon them during the week that they may realize wherein they are at fault, and through repentance and confession fit themselves for the holy festival of Easter.

Lent, said the priest, is a time for self-wakening, and one of the subjects which all people should bring themselves to realize, is the deformity of sin, and may justly be given the form of a demon, and Lent is the time set aside for the purpose of cleansing the soul of the marks of sin. It is the duty of Christians not to forget to spend some time in considering the malice and deformity of sin, and in thinking of the beauty, goodness and mercy of God, who has made it possible for man to escape from sin. No evil-deed, one who transgresses the commands of God, can enter into the kingdom of Heaven, but God has made it possible through the church for him to seek and receive absolution, and thereby make it possible for any soul, no matter how black with sin, through sincere repentance and confession, to make it self worth of the everlasting reward.

This is true even of a soul guilty of mortal sin. Such a one may be truly said to be under the dominion of the devil. Mortal sin is the worst offense against God that man can commit. It means his deliberate turning from God. Man, through the sacraments of the church, is sealed to God. He belongs to him through the sacraments of baptism and confirmation. Mortal sin is the breaking of these bonds, the deliberate turning away from God to worship idols, that is, the refusal to worship the Lord who has made impossible for the Lord to forgive sin of this kind, but his mercy is infinite, his loving kindness without limit, and he is ready to forgive if the sinner is truly repentant and confesses his fault. It is for this purpose of repentance and confession that the time of Lent is set aside.

The primitive Christians classified mortal sin under three names: apostasy, adultery and murder. It took years of repentance and public confession to cleanse a man of these sins.
They are just as serious in these days, although the penance is not so severe. Men today do not realize this, however. When they think of the terrible penance that the early Christians underwent to cleanse their souls of sin they do not think that they have committed sins just as mortal, they only thought is that they are glad that they did not have to live in a time when such penances were required. This lack of a true realization was the case with David. He committed the two deadly sins of adultery and murder, but he did not realize his offense until it was brought to him by the prophet Nathan. Then he repented day and night in sackcloth and ashes. David showed that he was a Christian when he repented, and it is this also that man must do today in order to receive salvation.

It is true that God has redeemed us once by his death on the cross, but if we refuse him, turn our backs on his sacrifice there is no hope for us. No sin is too great to repent of, none to black for him to forgive. But there can be no forgiveness without repentance. This is shown by the story of the prodigal. His first words when returning were for forgiveness. And his father was waiting for him. God redeemed us before we were born, but there is something necessary on our part before we can be saved a second time, and that is repentance.

This second means of salvation is given to the church. To her ministers is given the power to absolve sinful men of his offenses when he has shown that he is truly repentant and has come to God with a true heart. It is a strange thing that men will live in mortal sin, will impel his hopes of eternal salvation when God has given his life on the cross that he might be saved, and in addition to that has sent the means of a second salvation to the priests of his church. It is a terrible thing to forget the only true friend that a man has, for the friends of the world who are not friends in truth, but the enemies of his immortal soul. Man loses his power to receive grace and keeps putting off his repentance until the last hour, and then regretting the sins which he has gone to the bottom less pit, through their neglect of the only true friend.

It is a man's duty to prepare for confession with the same deliberation that he gives to an important worldly transaction. To a thing of this kind, a man will devote much time in considering the facts in all their relations. Why should he not give as much time to the examination of his immortal soul? Examination of his soul, then, sincere repentance and confession are essential before one can receive absolution of his sins. But in asking for forgiveness, it is necessary that man give up the things for which he asks forgiveness. If his sins are of the world, he must give them up, forsake his evil companions and their loose pleasures, he cannot worship idols and ask God's forgiveness over one shoulder.

Lent, then, is the time for this self-examination, repentance and confession. When a man has cross-examined his soul, amended his evil ways, confessed and received absolution, he comes forth, clean and happy, full of the spirit of true Christianity, and strong in the faith that his God is the God of mercy and goodness.

DROPPED DEAD IN ROCKFORD SUNDAY

Charles L. Burpee of Denver, Uncle of Janesville's Ex-City Attorney, Passed Away While Dressing.

Charles L. Burpee of Denver, an uncle of former City Attorney Fred C. Burpee of this city and one of the guests at a dinner party given by the latter in the Hotel Myers ordinary on Saturday, succumbed to heart disease while dressing at the home of a nephew, Charles Brantingham, in Rockford, at eight o'clock Sunday morning. He and his wife had at first expected to remain in Janesville Saturday night but changed their plans and departed for the Forest City on the 7 p. m. car. Mr. Burpee was apparently in excellent health and while during his visit in this city with his nephew enjoyed renewed acquaintance with a number of people whom he met on his last visit here some twelve or fourteen years ago. In a conversation with Capt.
Perry Norcross, numerous reminis-cences of the Civil War were brought to light. Mr. Burpee having enlisted at Rockford, his native home, and served with an Illinois regiment. He complained of feeling ill shortly after he had arisen yesterday morning; lay down upon a couch for a moment; and passed away before a physician could reach him.

Mr. and Mrs. Burpee lost a son thirty-eight years of age about six weeks ago and came east a few days after his funeral in the hope of lightening their sorrow by travel. They visited both in Rockford and Champaign, where Mr. Burpee had been engaged in banking business prior to taking up his residence in Denver twenty years ago. While sojourning in the latter city Mr. Burpee received word that a sister-in-law, Mrs. George Burpee, had died in California and the remains were brought to Bushnell, Ill., for burial.

The deceased was engaged in banking in Denver and was also active in politics. As president of the city board of supervisors, he was for two years acting mayor of Denver. For a time, also, he was president of the police board. He was 66 years of age and is survived by a widow, one son, and two sisters—Mrs. Brantingham and Miss Louise Burpee of Rockford. The remains will be taken back to Denver today. The sad tidings were conveyed to Fred C. Burpee in a telephone message about ten o'clock yesterday morning and he departed for the Forest City yesterday afternoon.

FINED FOR GIVING A SUNDAY CONCERT

Peter L. Myers Paid $12.50 This Morning for Violation of the Amusement Ordinance.

At the instance of the Janesville Ministers' association, Peter L. Myers, manager of the Myers theatre, was haled into municipal court this morning on a complaint charging him with violation last evening of Ordinance No. 243, adopted Sept. 3, 1902, which is designed to prevent the presentation of theatricals and other exhibitions, shows, amusements on the Sabbath day. Mr. Myers pleaded guilty to a violation of the ordinance, though his attorney, Louis Avery, called the court's attention to the high character of the concert given by Miss Jeanie Fletcher and her company, stating that it could have been presented in any church in the city without causing comment or offense. He also argued that similar entertainments were being given in the theatres of almost every city in the state Sunday evenings; that a large portion of the people wanted them here; that Manager Myers had been given to understand that the council was to amend the ordinance last Friday evening so as to permit concerts and lectures on the Sabbath and had incurred the expense of advertising the attraction on this supposition; that the council was expected to pass such an amendment this evening; that such entertainments contributed to the educational and spiritual uplift of the community and its culture; and, in short, that the violation was only technical and that only the minimum penalty should be imposed. Judge Elford said that he could not find the ordinance objectionable, though it was a violation of the ordinance. He levied the minimum fine of $12.50, together with costs amounting to $1.00, and advised Mr. Myers not to give any more Sunday concerts unless the ordinance should be amended. The provisions of the measure in question are as follows:

"No person or persons within the limits of the city of Janesville shall exhibit to the public, for gain, any circus, menagerie, theatrical performance, musical entertainment, or any other show, exhibition, entertainment, or performance, whatever, on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday."

"No owner or manager of any hall, opera house, or theatre within the limits of the city of Janesville shall suffer or permit any such hall, opera house, or theatre to be kept open for the purpose of giving any of the entertainments mentioned in this ordinance, for gain, on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday."

CONCERT LAST NIGHT MUCH APPRECIATED

Return Engagement of Miss Jeanie Fletcher Greeted with Small but Enthusiastic Audience.

Last evening Miss Jeanie Fletcher and her company of premier artists gave a concert at the Myers Theatre, the second given by the company here. While the audience was a small one, the numbers on the program appealed to them and were well applauded, each one receiving an encore. The entertainment was quite as good as the former one.

Although the music and speaking was not sacred, the entertainment was such as would appeal to music-lovers and the public in general as a high-class concert. Most of the numbers of the former entertainment, with the exception of the sword dance and the bagpipe music, were repeated, rendered by Mr. Melarty and solos by Martin Libby being substituted.

Miss Fletcher's singing was very popular although not quite up to the standard of her former appearance. Miss Ferguson's work with the violin was also well liked, each selection receiving an encore. Alex. McCarty's humorous stories and readings were new and an improvement over those which he gave before. Mr. Libby's songs are always the best although the songs from the Italian and Greek are not much favored as the songs in English on account of the failure of the audience to understand them.

MRS. EDWIN SAMUELS WAS LAID TO REST

Services Were Held in Oak Hill Chapel at Half Past Two This Afternoon.

The funeral of Mrs. Edwin J. Samuels, who died in Chicago, Saturday morning, was held at Oak Hill chapel at half past two o'clock this afternoon. Rev. H. C. Denison officiating. The local chapter Daughter of the American Revolution, of which society she was an interested member, attended in a body. Mrs. Samuels was also a member of the Congregational church of this city. Many flowers bespoke the love of friends.

Augusta Virginia Chase, second daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Chase, was born in Janesville, January 13, 1856, and was married to Mr. Edwin J. Samuels, June 28, 1877, who with their two children, Collin and Grace Margarette, survive her; also a sister and two brothers in Portland, Oregon.

Mrs. Samuels was of a quiet, retiring disposition, patient in an illness that had been of several years duration. One of her striking characteristics was that she had a friendship for everyone, and always had time to spend for her friends. She was a delightful hostess, and was content that if at the close of each day it had been spent for the good of a few. While blind of life, there was no regret except for her family, when the summons came.

To them, many old friends will extend their sympathy as they return to the empty home in Burlington. The survivors were Messrs. Peter J. Mount, Alexander C. Matheson, William S. and Malcolm G. Jeffers.

SOCIAL UNION CLUB TO HOLD ITS NEXT MEETING MARCH 23D

The meeting of the Social Union club, originally set for tomorrow night, has been postponed until March 23d. This postponement was made necessary when Prof. G. L. Collier of Beloit college, one of the speakers of the evening, notified the leader of his inability to appear on the usual date of the club's meeting.

It is the plan of the leader, L. F. Bair, to make this program one of the most interesting of the year, and he has secured excellent speakers of recognized authority to handle the various topics, together with such excellent musical numbers by the Mendelssohn club of this city. The complete program will be announced later in the week.

Link and Pin HEAD WAS CRUSHED AT MINERAL POINT

Drakeman Bert Stevens Badly Injured Between Two Cars at Mineral Point.

Bert Stevens is in a critical condition at his home, 162 South Academy Street, from injuries received Saturday night at Mineral Point, when his head was caught between two coaches and badly crushed. Stevens' regular work was night freight braking on 72 and 1 between Janesville and Milton, but he had his first chance on passenger run 7 to Mineral Point and it was while switching that train for the morning run that he was injured. He was working at the time between a passenger and a baggage coach with his head between the two extreme timbers of the cars, when the baggage coach backed and caught his head. It is feared that his car-drums have burst, and that his sight has been affected. When brought home on number 6 yesterday afternoon he was delirious.

C. M. & St. P. Notes

Engineer Barrow went back to his regular runs this morning after a short lay-off.

Engineer Mills and Fireman Dorsey went out on 330 this morning.

CIRCUS TRAIN GOES THROUGH JANESVILLE

Section of Circus Train Passes Through En Route for Madison Square Garden.

A special train of twenty-nine cars, carrying part of Ringling Bros' Circus from Baraboo to New York, passed through Janesville yesterday afternoon at 3:45 in charge of Conductor W. C. and Engineer Mann. The train, which was a heavy one, double-headed from Baraboo to Janesville, and had considerable trouble in getting around the curves in the local yards. The cars, which were freshly painted a bright yellow, presented a brave appearance, and the canvas covers were tightly battened down for the trip. The circus will open in New York on March 25th, and stay a month. In addition to the expense of bringing the show from Baraboo to Chicago it will cost the Ringling Bros. $2,840 to take the show from Chicago to New York over the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, Chicago and North-Western.

Engineer Schoenberger is back on the switch-engine this morning. Corn, who has been relieving him, is on the extra board.

Switthman Merrill is taking the place of Ed. Horn, who is laying off.

Engineer Selmore is taking the place of Garbutt, who is laying off.

Only one switch-engine was at work last night and yesterday.

Fireman Dawson was on the switch-engine last night with Engineer Thompson.

The motor-car broke down Saturday noon and Engineer Crowley took an engine and coach on the noon run. The car was ready for the night run.

QUEEN OF HIGHWAY FAILED TO APPEAR

Comedy of Disguises Took Place of Performances Announced for Saturday Night.

Although "The Queen of the Highway" was slated for an appearance Saturday night, the queen for some reason failed to materialize, and another play which might easily have been called "The Prince of Disguises," appeared in place of the former queen. At any rate the audience was pleased by the comedy, whatever the name happened to be. There were plenty of amusing complications that arose from the efforts of a discouraged lover to hoodwink his father and the father of his fiancée. It required a great stretch of the imagination on the part of the audience to keep up the fiction of the disguises, but aside from that there was plenty to laugh over. The marriage, which was to have taken place on the stage, like the amateur performance of Friday night, was conspicuous by its absence.

160 BANQUETERS ILL; 4 MAY DIE

Bad Meat Poisons Guests at Masonic Feast.

FEAR SEVERAL WILL DIE

Physicians of Vincennes, Ind., Have Hard Battle to Save Victims Who Drop in the Streets, Hotels and Their Homes.

Vincennes, Ind., Mar. 15.—At least four persons, it is feared to-day, will not recover from ptomaine poison caused by eating bad meat Saturday night at a banquet to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of a local Masonic lodge. Altogether 160 persons were poisoned.

Local physicians and several called from nearby towns and cities have been battling for hours to save the victims, many of whom dropped in their homes and several in the streets and public places after being poisoned.

Those in the most serious condition are Frank S. Surve, former judge of the circuit court of Lawrenceville, Ill.; D. D. Johnson of Evansville and A. S. Sampson of Owensboro, Ky.

Soon after the banquet, which was held early in the evening, the victims of the poison in the meat felt its first effects. Those who were strangers in Vincennes and who congregated in the hotel lobbies, began falling one by one to the floor.

Many Stricken in Homes. Residents of the town who had gone home were stricken there. Others fell writhing where they walked or stood in the streets. Within an hour more than a hundred persons had been seized with illness, the most seriously affected losing consciousness.

Every available physician was summoned to care for those who were first to feel the effects of the poison. As the others fell by the score they were forced to suffer agonies without relief until the first cases could be cared for. Several of those who are now in a serious condition might have been saved from danger by immediate medical attention.

Through the night the physicians worked to save the lives of those who had eaten of the meat. From one house to another and from hotel to hotel they rushed, sometimes only being able to give temporary relief.

Hotel's Become Hospitals. Some of the guests at the banquet had returned to their homes in nearby towns, and a call for physicians to these places brought the answer that they themselves were unable to care for all the cases brought to their attention.

Twenty victims were at once rushed to the hospital here, where they were cared for. Two of the hotels were turned into temporary hospitals for the stricken. Women volunteered to act as nurses for those who had no families to care for them.

It is believed that many cases, less serious, will yet be reported. There were 200 or more at the banquet, and nearly all partook of the meat. Bits of the meat left from the banquet will be analyzed at once and an effort made to find where the blame lies.

WAGE HOT FIGHT ON RUM. Thirty-One Indiana Counties Now Dry as Result of Elections.

Indianapolis, Ind., Mar. 15.—If Stant county votes to close its saloons in the county option election it is to hold to-morrow, 32 of the 92 counties in Indiana shall have declared themselves "dry" under the option law, for the repeal of which the Democrats struggled unsuccessfully in the session of the legislature just ended.

Besides the 32 counties that already have gone "dry" in option elections, 21 have closed their saloons by local remonstrances. Forty remain "wet," but in the near future many of them will hold elections with the "drys" in most instances having a good chance of winning, for in a large part of them townships or towns have driven out saloons by remonstrance.

One of the bitterest struggles between the liberal and the anti-saloon elements will come in Vincennes, where a petition for an option election is being circulated. The city has 72 saloons, two distilleries and one brewery.

Transport Logan Is Ashore. Honolulu, Mar. 15.—The United States army transport Logan went ashore Saturday night in this harbor, while maneuvering to back into her slip. She is not leaking and is in no danger. The commander of the British cruiser Cambrian, now here, has offered the services of his vessel, but it is believed that the Logan's engines and the tugs will be able to get the big ship about.

Seventeen Injured in Wreck. San Antonio, Tex., Mar. 15.—Seventeen passengers were injured, some seriously and two perhaps fatally, when an east-bound Southern Pacific passenger train, No. 10, ran into an open switch and crashed headlong against a switch engine on a side track in the yards at San Antonio yesterday. Among the most seriously injured is W. J. Desmond, Milwaukee, Wis.

Government Troops Defeated. Tanager, Mar. 15.—Reports received here from Fez say the forces of the pretender Regh, which are advancing on that city, have defeated the government's troops.

UNION MEN IN BOSTON ASSAIL JUDGE WRIGHT

Denounce His Decision Against Compensations, Mitchell and Morrison in Injunction Case.

Boston, Mar. 15.—As a demonstration against the sentences of imprisonment imposed upon Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison by Judge Wright of the District of Columbia, more than 5,000 members of labor unions paraded through the streets of this city to-day.

Afterwards a large meeting was held in Faneuil hall and several overflow meetings in the surrounding streets attracted large crowds.

The Faneuil hall audience heard Judge Wright attacked sharply for his decision in the case, and a resolution was drawn up in which it was stated that the courts were biased and the laws directed at one class only.

Judge Wright was accused of using "intemperate and bitter language to representatives of organized labor," and it was said that "he was not a fit person to handle the case." Copies of the resolution were sent to President Taft, Vice-President Sherman and Speaker Cannon.

Charging that the sentence of the three union leaders had been communicated to the newspapers one hour before it was formally pronounced upon them, Charles McFarland of South Norwalk, Conn., said the sentence was "one of the most wretched acts in the drama of justice."

EXPECTS COAL MINE STRIKE.

Union Official Confident Men Will Quit Work in Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, Mar. 15.—Secretary Hardison of district No. 9, Amalgamated Mine Workers, declared he believes there will be a strike of the anthracite miners. He said:

"In my opinion a strike is sure to come. At the conference between the representatives of the operators and of the miners the former maintained an attitude which, in my opinion, will cause a strike to be called."

"The rejection of the demands will anger the members of the union and I am of the opinion that the result of the convention to be held in Scranton on March 23 will be that the committee will be instructed to again confer with the mine operators and to again present to them the very same demands which they have just rejected. Then, unless these demands are granted, which I do not think possible in view of the present attitude of the operators, I am confident that a strike will be called."

Was Her Day of Fate

A most extraordinary fatality is reported from Trochnitz, in Servia. A tenant woman named Savka Stokichies put down her knitting to drive a hen from the kitchen, when the bird flew against the wall, on which hung her husband's loaded gun; and, porching on the trigger, caused the charge to explode, says a writer. The bullet entered Savka's chest, wounding her fatally.

ECZEMA CANNOT BE CURED BY EXTERNAL APPLICATIONS ALONE.

Advice From a Physician Who Has Made Skin and Blood Diseases a Life Study.

If you have Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Ulcers, Scrofula, etc., get rid of them at once. Don't trifle with yourself by using every patent lotion and ointment that comes under your notice, and that at best gives you only temporary relief. Take Dr. TAYLOR'S REMEDY. He made a life study of these diseases, and his formula is the only treatment that will eliminate the poison from the blood and effect a permanent cure. If you have any of these diseases, depend upon it they are either inherited or caused by uric acid or other poisons lurking in the system. External applications alone cannot up the pores of the skin and force the disease back into the blood, to reassert itself as soon as the outward applications cease. Permanent relief can be obtained only by forcing the poison out of the blood, leaving it pure and limpid as nature intended it should be. Send to our office, 1330 Arch Street, for booklet. ## How to Test a Newspaper Advertisement

Is it Natural?

Newspaper space is a vehicle by which an advertiser's ideas are distributed to the readers.

That the identity of the sender may be immediately recognized, his message must be a natural expression of himself, and reflect his personality.

So much advertising fails because the advertiser clothes his ideas in wording that is not at all consistent with his nature.

His best friends do not recognize him in his advertising garb, while those who do not know him, feel instinctively that he is masquerading.

The secret of a perfect photographic likeness is not in an expensive camera, in the up-to-date equipment of a gallery, nor yet in the effective use of light.

It is the ability of the artist himself to command unconsciously the confidence of the sitter and to accurately gauge his real character.

By it he overcomes the feeling of strangeness, the lack of poise in his subject, and catches him in a natural attitude. He can then transmit to a piece of paper a likeness of the man as he really is.

The best "copy" for a newspaper advertisement is simply the natural, sincere, talk that a merchant uses in making a sale over his counter.

A copy writer must be able to impersonate the advertiser's personality and so express ideas in print that they are instantly recognized as a sincere message from the head of the business.

If he can make the reader feel in his "copy" that intangible something that pervades every successful commercial organization—he can be trusted with the work. If not, the head of the business had better prepare his own copy.

In a word, before sending a message to the people, through the columns of the newspaper, see if the thought and the wording ring true as the natural expression of the advertiser.

INTERURBAN TO BE BUILT WITHIN YEAR

Line Between Janesville and Capitol Will Probably Be Well Under Way Before End of Summer.

According to the prediction of G. H. Carver, manager of the Madison Wagon company of Stoughton, the proposed interurban between Madison and Janesville will be well under way before the end of the coming summer and will be built but not finished within a year. Says Mr. Carver: "I have kept in pretty close touch with the management of the proposed interurban company since its organization, and just as soon as all obstructions are removed the work will be started and rushed to completion. As yet the common council of Janesville has not granted a franchise to the Cheltenham Construction company, and this is no little matter in the way of an early start. All the other towns and cities between Janesville and Madison have granted the required franchises and the matter is up to the two large terminals."

The definite route of the road over which the line will probably be decided on in a few days. Mr. Ellis, chief engineer for the Construction company, will go to Stoughton shortly and it is probable that his decision will be made then. H. H. Ziegler is expected to be in that city soon.

FAMOUS WRESTLER IN CITY SUNDAY

Jack Carlock, Husband of Miss Jeanie Fletcher, the Singer, Once in Beloit.

Jack Carlock, former minister, lawyer, and champion wrestler, who trained for several years at the Kluge establishment in Beloit, was a visitor here yesterday and spent several hours with his old friend, Chief of Police George Appleby, at the city hall. Mr. Carlock is the husband of Miss Jeanie Fletcher, the Scottish singer, who appeared at the theatre last night. Besides his other accomplishments, and he has many of them, he is known as a rare raconteur of good stories. One of his best is a hard luck tale which runs somewhat as follows: "I was about dead broken in London, with only a shilling and a sixpence in my pockets. Being desperate, I invested that shilling and sixpence in a piece of lead pipe; wrapped it up in a newspaper; and lay in wait for the first rich-looking bloke who should come my way. About dusk my patient watching was rewarded. I jumped out behind the fellow, raised my weapon, and struck! The newspaper cylinder crumpled as it fanned the back of his head! And my last fortune invested in that lead pipe! Talk about your hard luck!"

RAY PODEWELL PAYS $25 FINE AND COSTS

For Permitting Large, New Cash Slot Machine to Be Operated in His Saloon.

Chief of Police Appleby made a little tour of inspection Saturday evening in search of violators of the wine-ordinance. He arrived at Ray W. Podewell's oft-mentioned establishment at 15 North Academy street just in time to see a box of females taking a hasty departure from a rear entrance. "You can keep right on permitting this sort of thing, I suppose, so long as we don't catch you and can't produce the evidence," said the chief to the proprietor. The latter grinned complacently but the smile soon faded. For the chief's glance, traveling about the place and the corners of the place, presently alighted on a large, new slot-machine guaranteed to pay money dividends—on occasion—which one of the customers was industriously playing. "You can run these slot devices, also, but you can't get the evidence on this count, so don't whine, but get ready to take your medicine like a man!" exclaimed the head of the police department as Mr. Podewell began to explain that the machine was brought in from the late Tim Sullivan's ranch at Koshkonong lake and left there, so he thought he'd let his customers play with it for just one evening, etc. Mr. Podewell appeared in municipal court this morning, pleaded guilty to the charge, and paid a fine and costs amounting to $27.50.

TO PASS ON NEW MILK ORDINANCE

Common Council Tonight Will Also Consider Advisability of Amendment.

At the instance of Health Officer G. C. Wauder, a new milk ordinance providing for a rigid inspection of all milk supplying the "real, sky blue article" to Janesville, has been drawn up by City Attorney H. J. Maxwell and will probably be introduced at the common council meeting this evening. It will be remembered that Dr. Wauder's report submitted at the last meeting chronicled the fact that there had been 23 deaths from tuberculosis within the corporate limits of Janesville since Jan. 1, 1908, and that in nearly every instance there were no traces of the disease in the family history of the victims. His conclusion were that the burden of the responsibility as to the milk placed on milk from infected cattle. The question of amending the Sunday amusement ordinance so as to permit concerts and lectures on the Sabbath will also come up for consideration.

BRINKMAN'S STORE AT AFTON WAS BURGLARIZED LAST FRIDAY NIGHT

But Local Authorities Do Not Believe Same Parties Were Responsible for Attempted Bank Robbery at Roscoe.

Burglars gained entrance through a window to John Brinkman's general store and the postoffice at Afton Friday evening and got away with a few dollars in change from the candy and gum machines and a gunnysack full of patent leather shoes. One of these shoes was found along the railroad track, indicating the route by which the marauders made their escape.

Chief Appleby does not share the opinion entertained in some quarters that the same individuals composed the gang of four who tried to rob the bank at Roscoe early Saturday morning, but who were frightened away before they could accomplish their purpose. There were four well-dressed and suspicious looking individuals among the lodgers in the local lock-up one night during the early part of the week.
